#ReinventPA – Making Government Work Better for You

#ReinventPA

Pension Reform (Act 5 of 2017): Aims to slow the growth of pension liabilities, shift risk away from taxpayers and ensure the Commonwealth can meet its future pension obligations. The law establishes three new public pension plans from which state employees and teachers hired in 2019 or later can choose. Each offers a defined contribution component, similar to a 401(k) commonly offered to workers in the private sector. The plans provide future employees with retirement security and portability while also protecting taxpayers. Current employees will have the opportunity to opt in to a new plan or continue in their current plan, and retirees would not see any changes to their plans.

Office of Inspector General (Act 29 of 2017): Makes the Office of Inspector General a permanent part of state government, grants the office subpoena power for its internal investigations, and authorizes the office to investigate and file criminal charges for certain welfare fraud crimes.

Performance-Based Budgeting Act (Act 48 of 2017) – Establishes performance-based budget recommendations and reviews by the Independent Fiscal Office and an independent board to enhance and improve budget development and decision making associated with the annual budget process. The reviews will look at state agencies and make recommendations to make operations and programs more transparent, effective and efficient.

Bills Awaiting Further Legislative Action

Issuing Birth Certificates (HB 84 – awaiting Senate action): Amends the Vital Statistics Law to improve and speed up the process for issuing birth certificates in the Commonwealth.

Legislative Reduction (HB 153): Proposes to amend the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to reduce the size of the House of Representatives from 203 districts to 151. A constitutional amendment must pass the General Assembly in two consecutive sessions. This measure was passed in the 2015-16 session and is awaiting consideration this session.

Results First in Budgeting (HB 599 – awaiting Senate action): Establishes the Results First Project and requires the Independent Fiscal Office to implement and maintain a multidimensional data analyzing system.

Budget Reforms (House Bills 1940-1945 – awaiting Senate action): The bills aim to bring more accountability and transparency to state government and rein in excessive government spending. The bill package includes:

- HB 1940, which would close a loophole that has allowed out-of-balance budgets to become law because the governor has failed to sign an official revenue estimate indicating whether sufficient funds exist to pay for it.
- HB 1941, which would set reasonable time limits on budgetary waivers before unused funds are returned to the State Treasury. Currently, funds can lapse indefinitely.

- HB 1942, which would require the Secretary of the Budget in December of a fiscal year to determine if revenues will fall short of the official estimate, and if so, by how much. That amount of funding would then have to be placed in budgetary reserve to avoid ending the fiscal year with a deficit.
- HB 1943, which would make special funds – those funds with a dedicated source of revenue to be used for a specific purpose – more transparent, open and accountable.
- HB 1944, which would require annual reports to show the cost of state and federal mandates by the administration, including funds used as federal matching funds, and which are entitlements. This legislation would also require the governor to present legislative language in the annual budget proposal process.
- HB 1945, which would require the administration to submit a statement of the need for supplemental appropriation and recommendations for cost-savings or other reforms which address the cause of the need for the supplemental appropriation.

Spending Cap (HB 110 – awaiting Senate action): Proposes a state constitutional amendment to limit state spending by imposing a cap based on recent increases in the Consumer Price Index and state population growth. A constitutional amendment must be approved in two consecutive legislative sessions and then by the state’s voters.

Regulatory Reforms (HBs 209, 1237, 1792, 1959 and 1960 -- awaiting Senate action): These bills aim to cut government red tape and reduce burdensome regulations while still maintaining the integrity of health and safety regulations.

- HB 209 establishes the Independent Office of the Repealer to review statutes and regulations for possible revision/repeal.
- HB 1237 establishes an enhanced review process for major regulations that impose substantial cost burden on the Commonwealth.
- HB 1792 gives the General Assembly the ability to initiate the repeal of any regulation in effect in Pennsylvania by a concurrent resolution and prohibits that regulation from being promulgated in the future unless authorized by law.
- HB 1959 reforms the administration of permits by state agencies.
- HB 1960 requires each state agency to designate an employee as the agency’s regulatory compliance officer.

Wholesale Divestiture (HB 1075 – awaiting Senate action): Divests the wholesale system for both wine and spirits and creates a State Stores Operating Fund.

Alcoholic Hard Cider (HB 1497 – awaiting Senate action): Requires alcoholic cider be primarily derived from apples, apple juice concentrate and water or from pears or pear juice concentrate and water; expands the definition of a public venue under the law; amends eligibility for wine and spirits auction permits to include any community-based voluntary health organization committed to fighting cancer; prohibits placement of a ballot question on a special election ballot; and allows performing arts facilities to serve liquor and malt brewed beverages from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Sundays.

Taxpayer Protection

Unemployment Compensation System Funding (Act 1 of 2017): Amends the Unemployment Compensation Law to provide $15 million in funding to the Service and Infrastructure Improvement Fund (SIIF) in 2017; allocates the funding and requires monthly reports on expenditures; and requires the Department of Labor and Industry to submit a report on ending reliance on SIIF and submit a funding request for upgrades to the Unemployment Compensation benefit delivery system.

The spending increase falls below the rate of inflation (2.13 percent) and the Taxpayer Bill of Rights rate (2.27 percent). The measure includes no new or increased taxes and effectively eliminates the budget deficit for which the Wolf Administration claimed the only way out was to increase taxes. It makes record investments in PreK-12 education ($12.3 billion) and establishes a new $60 million school safety block grant program to ensure Pennsylvania students have a safe environment in which to learn. This is expected to provide significant savings to the Commonwealth.
